

BOUND, GAGGED, ROBBED AT REVOLVER MUZZLES IN VIEW FROM STREET

Three Who Tied Dentist Up,
He Says, Seem to Have Left
His Arms Loose.

Jacob Shpout, who works for Dr. A. L. Polman, a dentist at No. 152 Delancey street, heard yells to-day coming from the office of Dr. Benjamin Friedman, also a dentist, across the hall. He ran in and found Friedman tied in an armchair. "Get the police! Get the police!" shouted Friedman. "Don't mind me. I've been robbed and I'm a ruined man."

Shpout ran to the Clinton street station, a stone's throw away, and brought Capt. Faye, in charge of detectives there. Friedman was found to be tied peculiarly, his legs being fastened firmly to the legs of the chair, while his arms were loosely held to the arms of the chair so that he could move his forearms. But Friedman declared he had not been able to free himself, though he had worked a gag out of his mouth.

The dentist said he had just sent his younger brother with $10 to a Brooklyn bank and was alone when a young man entered. The youth had applied to him for work and the dentist had found a place with a neighboring dentist. He told him and the young man, thanking him profusely, walked out.

A moment later the youth returned with two companions. The three drew revolvers and aimed them at Friedman's head, warning him not to make a sound, as they said they had silencers on the weapons and could shoot him without being heard. Then they bound him and one of them kept striking him in the face while the others ransacked the safe, the door of which was open, and took $150 worth of porcelain teeth and scrap gold. Friedman said he had bought $100 worth of the gold yesterday and had not paid for it.

Faye went through the office building and found only one man who had seen strangers about. He was Abraham Siegel, who keeps a book store on the first floor, and he had seen two—not three—men hurrying away.

The window of the dental office is big and looks out on the crowded plaza in Delancey street. Faye could not understand how a man could have been bound and gagged directly in front of the window without being seen from the street. Friedman said it was a mystery to him also, but he had been ruined by his loss. He didn't know the name of the youth for whom he had got a job. Faye started detectives on a search for any one who tried to pawn scrap gold.

"THE LOST MILLION" is the latest and best of the thrilling stories of adventure. It is full of love interest and deep mystery. Every page is breathlessly turned to the next to see what new surprise or thrill awaits the reader. This really wonderful piece of fiction will be printed complete and unabridged in the Sunday World Magazine beginning next Sunday.

THE SILENT BULLET

The silent bullet—who fired it? Whom did it hit? Why was it silent? The room in which it was fired was full of people. No one heard the shot. Why not?

All this denotes a pretty exciting and unusual mystery story, doesn't it? Not the kind of story you get hold of every day.

The story's name is "THE SILENT BULLET." It is by Arthur B. Reeve. It will begin serial publication in Monday's Evening World.

April 21. Don't forget the date. You can't read too soon.

GIMBELS

Today, A Special Presentation of
Men's SUITS and OVERCOATS
At $15

To Illustrate the Super-Excellence
Of ALL GIMBEL Clothing for Men

We are prone to emphasize the middle ground of the price range of our Clothing for Men—the Suits and Overcoats lying between $27.50 and $35.

This isn't fair to the rest of the splendid collection.

So tomorrow, to repair the injustice, we propose to show to New York men who are interested that they can get the same proportion of excess value in Suits and Overcoats at $15, as they can by paying higher prices.

We know that many men ARE interested in the Clothing that $15 will buy. Sufficiently interested to want to secure the BEST that that sum will secure.

We urge these men to come to GIMBELS tomorrow, and then shop around and COMPARE this Gimbel Clothing at $15 with what they are offered elsewhere. We shall be content to abide by their decision.

It is as good a time as they can possibly pick out to do it, for selection is now at its very best. We shall be glad to show them—

Sack Suits in Soft Roll Or Conservative Models, $15

With the narrow English shoulders and no padding, or the less extreme style, with more shoulder and straight lapels. In a wonderful variety of stylish fabrics—plain and fancy blues, plain blacks and mixtures in all the leading color-tones of the day. Suits for men, young men and youths—as good in material, tailoring and style as you would expect to get for $5 or even $10 more.

We heartily urge you to see this splendid Clothing tomorrow, as well as our superb stock of the still finer grades. YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO MISS THEM.

Fourth Floor

Chesterfield Less Formal OVERCOATS at $15

The Chesterfield Overcoats in three-quarter length, plain black and dark or medium gray; FULLY SILK-LINED. Also Spring Overcoats in novelty styles, including Raglan, split seam and belted back models, some with inverted plait. Strikingly handsome fabrics, in mixtures and plain colors. Overcoats, in short, that are really extraordinary value at $15.

For All Lively Boys
Who Are Needing New Clothes
Here Is Some Fine Saturday News

We don't believe that the boy most indifferent about his clothes can see these splendid new Suits and Overcoats without being glad that some of them are going to come his way.

The boy's point of view is as important as that of his parents, in our planning of boys' clothing styles—which is probably one reason why this Boys' Clothing Store has been so successful from the very first. Tomorrow's news:

Boys' $7.50 and $8.50 Norfolk Suits, $5.50
In smart styles, with yoke and box plaits; two pairs of full peg-top knickerbockers, lined throughout. Handsome tan and gray fabrics, built for service. Sizes 7 to 18 years.

Boys' $7.50 and $8.50 Spring Reefers at $5
For the little chaps of 2½ to 10 years. The Reefers have cloth or velvet collars, some patch pockets, and are alpaca or serge lined. Handsome Spring colorings; also plain blue serges.

Boys' Blue Serge Suits at $5 to $15
These serges ring true every time—all-wool, fast color, splendidly tailored. You may be sure of the top-notch of quality at each price. In Norfolk styles, 7 to 18 years; plain, double-breasted styles, 10 to 18 years.

Boys' Norfolk Suits at $10 to $15

A display of which we are particularly proud. Twelve distinct models, in many materials, including shepherd and club checks, fine pin stripes, and interwoven effects—some exclusive with GIMBELS. Sizes for 7 to 18 yrs. For SMALLER BOYS are the sailor and Russian blouse and French model Suits, in many fine styles, from 2½ to 10 years, at $5.50, $6.50 and $7.50.

Boys' $2.50 to $4 Wash Suits at $1.85
A special lot of over 1200 Suits, including special purchases and broken lines from our stock. Dozens of patterns, all good, 2½ to 10 years.

Besides these, there is a superb stock of Wash Suits at regular prices from $2 to $10.

Fourth Floor

Men Are Keen for These
BANISTER and BOYDEN Shoes
At $3.85

Of course the names of the makers, which appear on all the shoes, are sufficient guarantee of quality.

Then the styles are desirable for men who want comfort and good service.

And the price is extraordinarily low—for these Shoes retail regularly at $6, $7 and even $8 a pair.

Vici kid and gun-metal calf, lace and Blucher styles, with medium and heavy soles; also heavy oil-grain tan leather Shoes that are fine for tramping or camping.

Patent Coltakin Oxfords, for Summer dress wear. All at $3.85 a pair—practically all sizes, though perhaps not in every style.

Safety for Your FURS

You can let us take care of them with an absolute sense of security, for we have the most perfect facilities for protecting them in

The GIMBEL Fur Storage
where they live in cold, pure, dry air all Summer. We will also repair or remodel your furs, if you wish.

When May We Call for Them?

Telephone Madison Square 8200, Extension 35.

Women's White Silk Gloves

16 and 20-Button Lengths
That Are Very Low-Priced
at 75c and $1

We had to order these excellent Gloves in large quantities, to get them to sell at so low a price, and even then, we probably haven't enough to supply the demands women will make on us for them. Of a fine, firm tricot weave, in pure silk, perfectly fitting, and with Paris point embroidered back. New ones, if the finger-tips wear out before the rest of the Gloves.

The prices, 75c for the 16-button-length, and $1 for the 20-button length, are 25c to 50c less than other Gloves of equal excellence would cost.

Awarded to GIMBELS--189 Young Women's $40 to $50 SILK and CLOTH SUITS To Be Disposed of at $25

This compliment came from one of the best two tailors of young women's suits in New York. We were positively astonished when he came to us with the proposition, because it is nothing short of phenomenal.

Such an extraordinary presentation calls for our repeating his explanation—"I am going to Europe next week, and I want to get my workers started on Summer Suits before I go, and I can't do that until these Spring Suits are out of my way—you may have them at this ridiculous price, because I appreciate your extensive patronage."

If the young women could see these Suits while they are reading this announcement, they would feel as though they could not wait for 8.30 A.M. tomorrow, for there are Suits of

Cole-de Cheval—known as Silk Bedford cord Eponges
Checked Worsteds Wool Poplin Wool Maleasse
Faint Silk Silk Moire Silk Poplin

In all the fashionable shades of blue, brown, gray, rose, also black and white. Many styles, for of some there may be only one Suit, of others two or three. The cleverest ideas of Drecoll, Poiret, Lanvin, Bernard and Bechoff-David are reproduced in Mandarin, cutaway and Russian coat styles, with "Peg Top," draped and other smart skirts. Sizes 14, 16 and 18 years. Young Women's Mandarin Coats of Rodier Eponges, $35. Young Girls' Coats at $5—Serges and Mixed Woolens. Young Women's Draped Dresses of Crepe Meteor, $15. Junior Girls' Serge Coats, $11.50. Third Floor

Early Summer Modes Will Be Introduced in Our
Specialized $10 MILLINERY

Picturesque drooping chapeaux that should bear the title of Lingerie are among the prettiest, for they are composed of ruffle after ruffle of narrow Valenciennes lace—and each model is artistically adorned with a flower, probably a large American Beauty Rose!

Quill Trimmed Hats at $10

Long Quills perched at various angles are the latest fad of Fashion! Although you see them on very expensive chapeaux, we shall have them on $10 Hats tomorrow.

The new ideas in flower and ribbon-trimmed hats have reached a more artistic degree—as you will see in the many new hats tomorrow at $6.75, $8.75 and $14.75.

Young Women's Navajo-Pekin Hats at $2.25 and $3.50

This latest mode in tailored hats is unusually attractive, for the bright hued Navajo bands on white Pekin Hats form quite a contrast.

Young Girls' Dress Hats at $3.50, $5 and $10

Untrimmed Tagal Hats at $1.25, $1.75 and $2.75

Shadow Lace Blouses

$3.95, $6.95, $7.95 & $8.95

So exquisitely feminine! So different from the blouses of heretofore! So is it any wonder that these blouses have captured the admiration of the beauty-loving Parisiennes?

Cobwebby is the only word that can describe the fineness of the laces in these blouses, which are lined with Brussels net or flesh-color chiffon, and generally trimmed with white messaline in the way of collars and cuffs.

The Blouse with the Camisole Is $8.95

This Blouse, which is illustrated, is of shadow lace, and the camisole is of net, trimmed with Valenciennes lace, an Empire band of ribbon and large pearl buttons. This under-bodice is quite necessary, because the Blouse is rather transparent.

Trotteur Blouses—Tub Silk, $5.75

Crepe de Chine, $6.95

Trotteur Blouses of Lingerie

$2, $2.50, $3 and $3.95

The Blouse with the Pockets, $2

New Rumchunda Scarfs
That Savor of Bond Street

We bought the rich Rumchunda Silk kerchiefs, hand-tied and hand-dyed, in London, and had them made up here in New York into loose-end four-in-hands, that will add a picturesque note of color to a man's Summer get-up.

Men, who have recently come from England have seen these same smart Scarfs in the exclusive shops along Bond Street.

$1.50 each—we wish we had more of them than our rather limited quantity.

Pajama Luxury at $2.75

The soft, silk-and-cottons in these well-made Pajamas are as handsome in their patterns as they are comfortable for Summer wear. Ordinarily the Pajamas, with their silk frogs and surplice necks, would sell at $4, but we are able to ask much less, $2.75 a Suit.

COLLARS

Edged with Fine Platings 50c
and More

Narrow platings of Brussels net give an indescribable daintiness to these white crepe collars that are justly considered a very clever whim of Fashion. These, as well as those entirely of sheer voile, are 50c.

White Mousseline de Soie with hand-embroidered dots in color, have picot edged platings—with cuffs, $1.95 set.

Chemisettes, 25c to $3
Simple Bebe affairs with corded round necks, others with pointed and squared necks that are trimmed with lace, as well as some with high stocks—the majority are of fine net.

Guimpes, 25c to $4.50.
Malline Ruffs, $1.50 to $5.75

Main Floor

Down to $1.95!
Men's Spring Derbies
and Soft Hats
Hitherto $3

Take which you prefer—hard or soft—at this saving of more than one-third.

The maker's label in every hat will give you full confidence as to its quality.

Soft Hats, with the smart flat welted brim, or with curled brim. Fashionable colors and black.

Derbies in black, in about ten models, full stiff or self-conforming.

Broken sizes, hence the broken price.

But your size is here in one style or another.

A group of $2.50 Tweed Hats, in a dozen smart colorings, ventilated sides; specially good for motoring or country wear, now $1.50 each.

Fourth Floor

Men's Linen Underwear
At Less Than Half Price

These Union Suits and Athletic Shirts and Drawers increase mostly in desirability as Summer days approach. We bought them far below their full value, because the manufacturer was changing his styles.

Of pure Irish flax, splendidly made, absorbent, healthful, and comfortable.

"Kneipp" Linen Mesh Union Suits

At $2.25 Each, Usually $5.50

The mesh ventilates the skin perfectly, and tends to equalize the temperature. Made with short sleeves and knee-length, or with long sleeves and ankle-length. All sizes.

Athletic Shirts and Drawers

At 80c a Garment, Usually $2

The pure linen has a little self-stripe or check, and is very sheer and cool. The Shirts are sleeveless, in coat style, with drawers knee-length. It will pay to get your whole Summer's supply when you can buy pure linen for about the price of cotton.
